Dr Waldheim made his fourth visit to Cyprus as Secretary General of the United Nations last week, and as before the Force organised the various parts of his visit. He was received by an International Guard of Honour under the command of Major J. Prenninger of the Austrian Contingent, and the same guard paraded for him when he left. The arrangements for the visit followed the same pattern as the one last year, but also included a visit to his fellow-countrymen in Famagusta.

The Secretary General is seen above being greeted by the Chief of Staff on his arrival at Nicosia and inspecting the guard.
DANCON NEWS

Swedes beat Danes at handball

Handball is a popular winter sport in Sweden, played indoors in special covered courts. It is a game that is completely unknown to Cypriots and most members of other contingents, except the Danes who are considered among the world’s best handball players.

There are no handball courts in Cyprus, therefore the unofficial championship took place out of doors in the Danish Viking Camp.

It was a tough exciting match right from the start. The Danes kept pace with the Swedes until half-time, when the Swedes had a lead of 5-7. Then the Danes missed a number of penalties and the Swedes won with a score of 10-15.

Above is the best Swedish marksman, Olle Ake Björk, on his way to score one of his eight goals. Right is Olaf Werner in a tough situation.

Gold and Silver with pistol and SMG

The Swedish team Capt. Gaddman, Sgt. Bradley and Pte. Eriksson — won the UNICYP pistol championship in the competition organized by Bristol at Drekelesia. In this event Dancon finished second, but they took their revenge with the SMGs, when the Swedish had to be content with the silver medal. The Swedes were pictured here rushing to their positions, aiming steadily and finally Sgt. Bradley receiving his gold medal from the Force Commander.
ENGINEER-IN-CHIEF VISITS BRITCON

Major General C.P. Campbell, the Engineer-in-Chief, paid a flying visit to the British Contingent and the buffer zone two weeks ago to see for himself the tasks being carried out for UNFICYP by 62 Support Squadron RE and the Royal Engineer Detachments in Sector Two and the Support Regiment.

The General was pictured talking to the Chief Personnel and Logistics Officer Lt Col Col IA, Hare MBE Li while visiting the Support Regiment's Engineers.

General Campbell was also pictured with Brigadier Tillson the Chief of Staff.

Force Commander makes first flight

Last week the Force Commander and his new ADC made their first flight in a UN Alouette flown by Major C.M. Blount, the Commander of the United Nations Army Air Corps Flight.

SECRETARY GENERAL VISITS AUSCON

Hoher Besuch in Camp Duke Leopold V.

Herr Röck meldet den Ehrenzug in Camp Duke Leopold.

Captain A. Röck, reporting that the Guard of Honour is ready for inspection.

Although the Secretary General of the United Nations and his wife have had a very tight schedule during their visit in Cyprus, they insisted on visiting their fellow-countrymen in Auscon at Famagusta and to see and talk to them. Dr. Waldheim declared that he takes every opportunity to see the Australians wherever they serve with the United Nations.

CANADIAN ENTERTAINERS IN CYPRUS

On the 30th of December the Western Canada Revue arrived in Cyprus. They had just finished entertaining members of the Canadian Forces in Germany, Egypt and Israel.

Three shows were put on, two at the Ledra Palace Complex and one at the Great Municipal Theatre. The members of the Western Canada Revue came from the western part of Canada, predominantly from the province of Alberta.

We the members of CANCON wish to thank all the members of the Western Canada Revue for the excellent shows they put on for us, especially during the New Year period when they cheered us up at a time when we were all homesick for our families.

The pride of the show. Here you see all the dancers in action. How attractive they are.

Two of the Western Canada Revue dancers got an opportunity to visit BBC Complex. Here MG4 Lake D.H. tells it like it is.

HAND OVER TIME IN HQ

The Force Commander's ADC for the past twelve months Captain Lars Bonthius has now completed his tour and has returned to Sweden to attend a staff course. He has handed over to Captain Anders Dahlman with whom he was seen during the Secretary General's visit.

The Force Commander, Major H. W. Holmes, has left the Force to become the Head of the Medical Services in the Sovereign Base. He was pictured recently with his successor, Captain W. Holmes during his handover. Colonel Wesely will still retain the post of external service advisor to the Force, and in his new job will be responsible for the hospital in the SBA's that soldiers of the Force could go to.

FORCE COMMANDER PRESENTS LONG SERVICE MEDAL

The Staff Officer Maintenance for the past two years has been Major L. Roper from Sweden. His tour came to an end last week and he has left the Island for some well-earned leave. Before he left he was pictured with his successor Major M. Ockerson.

During the United Nations Military Police Company's parade recently the Force Commander presented a Long Service and Good Conduct Medal to Sergeant L. Marsh of the Royal Military Police. This medal is awarded for eighteen years exemplary service in the British Army.
POLICE NEWS

CANCON WINS AGAIN

The six monthly Force Rifle meeting took place at Dhekkala two weeks ago. Although the form of the competition remained the same, it was organised this time by the British Contingent as the Fijians who had done this previously are not strong enough to do so any more.

Each of the three competitions was most exciting with close results in each part.

The detailed results were:

- Rifle: 1st CANCON
  2nd AUSCON

- SMG: 1st DANCON
  2nd SWEDCON
