SECRETARY-GENERAL SPEAKS ON PROBLEMS OF CYPRUS: NO INDEFINITE U.N.
FINANCING: INVOLVEMENT ENVISAGED
VOLUNTARY SYSTEM INADEQUATE
FURTHER APPEAL FOR UNIFICYP FUNDS

U.N. Secretary-General, U Thant, told a press conference in New York last week that he did not think that the United Nations should be indefinitely involved in its peace-keeping functions in Cyprus.

Later in the week, the Secretary-General again appealed to all UN Member States for voluntary contributions to maintain the peace-keeping operation in the Island.

Speaking at a luncheon meeting with UN correspondents in New York, the Secretary-General said that he had been trying in the past few months to present some ideas to the parties primarily concerned with a view to a solution; but that so far these efforts had not been conclusive. He expressed the hope that the parties would try their utmost to find a peaceful solution before the end of the year, when the new mandate of the UN peace-keeping operation ends.

Stavrovunni Klosteret

Gjennom 30 kilometer syd for Nicosia, føtter det for Limassol-veien, ligger Stavrovunni Klosteret paa egnens katolske hjørnepunkt. St. Helena, kjøyer Konstantin den Storekongen, var i april 327 paa vei hjem til Konsentesalm fra Jerusalem, hvor hun havde grundet det hellige gravgjern. En engel viste seg forhindrende og blefve at hun, som hun havde gjort det i det hellige land, ogsaa her skulde bygge kloster kirke, og det hun vurderde forutbelte en tjenere, at der var set et mælkeligt husvik fra byggekapoen nord mod nord.

Fra Jerusalem medførte Helena halvdelen av den som, kortens vek, var blevet konsekret til, samt de to kor, som det andet var blevet konsekret paat. Det blev nu opgjort, at det et kor muligvis, som den anden, der tog Jesus i farvær og som Jesus lovde skulle komme fra Jerusalem, da han vendte tilbage.

You name it, they'll fix it...

Well it's true. With the right equipment, they can do it. The Army Detachment, Captain J. Wandel, and his Deputy, Captain J. Wandel, are here with all the tools and experience to make your life easier. They have the B.O.G., the B.O.C., the B.O.D., and they can fix anything.

Command of the detachment is W/O J. D. Byrne, who normally commands the 2 RIC Maintenance Flight. Most of his platoon is absorbed into the workshop, with the detachment while Sergeant H. Wilson of the ROTS Squadron forms a key section with his crew.

The newest member of the detachment is C/SQ 3. White, formerly of the 2 RIC Regimental Police Section. Lance Corporal White has always been interested in the welding trade and is presently undergoing job training with the metals section of the detachment with a view to transferring to RIC-MET. He is a very talented welder and his skills are constantly in demand.

U Thant to be Available for Second Term as Secretary-General?

Answer after Europe visit

U N Secretary-General, U Thant, said last week that he would make known his decision on whether to be available for a new term of office when he returns to UN Headquarters after a visit to Europe—on 9th July.

Addressing journalists at a press luncheon in New York, U Thant said he had given the matter a good deal of thought for the last four or five months and his decision would be guided by various official, political, and personal considerations.

Stating that he would be very happy if the Security Council was in a position to find someone to succeed him, the Secretary-General said he did not agree with those who said this would be difficult if he decided not to offer himself for a new term next autumn.

If necessary, he added, he would be very glad to help the Council find a successor if it desired; he did not think it was a very big problem.

But this did not imply, he said, that he had already taken a decision.

PEACE-KEEPING

The Secretary-General urged more energetic efforts to find a formula by which the UN could be effectively involved in future situations when called upon to perform functions which regional organizations or individual States could not carry out.

In a letter addressed to all Governments, U Thant noted that there was still a deficit of some three million dollars facing UNIFCYP. The costs to the world Organization since inception of the peace-keeping force in March 1964 has totaled almost 50 million dollars.

Last week the Security Council voted unanimously to extend the Cyprus operation for another six months, until 26 December. Estimated costs for the new period, U Thant said in his letter, amount to over 10 million dollars.

To date, he went on, only a little over two million dollars has been pledged.

The Secretary-General said new pledges totalling some 11 million dollars were needed if the United Nations was to honour in full its commitments and to cover costs involved in maintaining the Cyprus operation during the next six months.

BARBARIous CONFLICT MUST END

U Thant emphasizes need for Viet-Nam settlement

U N Secretary-General, U Thant, last week again emphasized the need for steps to bring about a negotiated settlement of the Viet-Nam conflict, which he described as one of the most barbarous wars in history.

U Thant reiterated his belief that three steps were essential to bring about a situation conducive to the holding of negotiations on the return to the 1954 Geneva agreements.

These were:

- End to the bombing of North Viet-Nam;
- Scaling down of all military activities in South Viet-Nam; and
- Willingness by all sides to enter into discussions with those actually fighting.

These steps alone, he said, could create conditions conducive to the holding of a conference and peaceful settlement - for the Viet-Nam conflict was becoming more and more urgent.

The Secretary-General made this statement at a press luncheon held in New York last week.

Agricultural reform - urgent for survival

In Rome last week, delegates from 70 nations agreed that a radical agricultural reform was an urgent matter of survival for the developing countries in this decade, towards increasing economic stability in these areas and in the face of a population explosion.

Warnings were issued by speakers at the opening of the World Land Reform Conference convened jointly by the UN Food and Agriculture Organization, with the participation of the International Labor Organization.

They stressed that the present critical state of world food and agriculture called for substantial efforts to bring about an agricultural revolution to increase food production in the developing countries.
