Sector 2 holds Medal Parade

3rd July 2017 marked a special day for 7 Regiment, The Royal Logistic Corps Op TOSCA Group, as they received their well-earned United Nations medals in the service of peace, presented by the Force Commander.

7 Regiment Group is supported by elements from a number of different British Military Regiments, including The Royal Army Medical Corps, The Royal Engineers, The Royal Electrical and Mechanical Engineers, The Adjutant General Corps, The Royal Air Force and various Royal Logistic Corps Regiments. The Regiment is commanded by Lt Col Steve Cornell.

Speaking at the event, held at Sector 2 HQ, Ledra Palace Hotel, UNFICYP Force Commander Major General Mohammad Humayun Kabir said: "Working within such complex operational environment needs extra ordinary professionalism by every peace keepers. Today's medal recipients of Sector 2 have accomplished all the operational tasks with distinction. Besides operational tasks, the sector has also arranged numerous social and ceremonial events for the mission," he added. "There is no doubt that the contributions of Sector 2 have been very significant, and of great value to the mission. Very well done Sector 2, and thank you for your excellent performance."
