STATEMENT BY THE SECRETARY-GENERAL ON THE CYPRUS CEASE-FIRE AGREEMENT

The following statement by the Secretary-General was circulated to members of the Security Council and released to the press on the evening of 10 August 1964 in New York:

"The President of the Security Council on 9 August, pursuant to the wishes of the Council, directed urgent appeal to the Governments of Cyprus and Turkey to end their hostile activities by a cease-fire. It is gratifying and encouraging that both Governments have responded positively and without conditions. On the morning of 10 August the President of the Council informed the President of the Security Council by telegraph that 'We shall respect the call of the Security Council for a cease-fire', and addressed a similar cable to me.

In a letter to the President of the Security Council I received on the afternoon of the same day, the Minister of Turkey stated that the Government of Turkey has decided to stop immediately the action of the Turkish aircraft over the Mansoura-Kokkina region'.

These decisions of the two Governments now afford an opportunity for definitely ending the fighting and relaxing tension in Cyprus, and it will be my purpose to take full advantage of this opportunity by exerting every effort toward constructive peace-keeping arrangements in all areas of the island. In consequence, I have instructed the Commander of the Force to cooperate fully with all parties in making the cease-fire thoroughly effective and to take every initiative and to lend all assistance towards this end. I strongly appeal to the Governments of Greece and Turkey and to the Turkish community in Cyprus to extend full cooperation and support to General Thimayya and to the United Nations Force in Cyprus which he commands, in their peace-keeping efforts.

IRISH TROOPS TAKE OVER LARNACA DISTRICT

The main body of the 3rd Irish Infantry Group arrived in Cyprus on the 5th and 6th August. The Officer Commanding is Lieut-Col Thomas McDonald.

On Saturday 8 August the 3rd Int Gp took over the Larnaca area from the Royal Irish Fusiliers and became operational in the area from that date.

Later in the day the Life Guards handed over their duties to the Royal Irish Fusiliers at Pollentia Camp in the Limassol District.

The total number of Irish Troops at present in Cyprus is 3,050.

"I have also asked Mr. Galo Plaza, my Special Representative in Cyprus, to return there promptly and it is expected that he will do so by the end of the week. The appeal of the President of the Security Council for a cessation of fighting was reaffirmed by a resolution of the Security Council, which also calls for an immediate cease-fire. That cease-fire is now in effect. This is a development that must be warmly welcomed. We must now look forward rather than backward and we must hope and strive for a durable restoration of peace and normalcy in Cyprus and the ultimate solution of its critical problems.

"In the light of the present situation, I do not believe that any useful purpose would be served by submitting the report on the incidents of fighting which have taken place in Cyprus since August 5th that was suggested by the President of the Security Council at its 1142nd meeting on 8 August. I have consulted the President of the Council about this and have his concurrence in my decision not to submit such a report at this time."

Swedes Evacuate Women and Children Under Fire

During the fighting in the Tylliria area of North West Cyprus soldiers of the Swedish Contingent of UNFICYP evacuated women and children from villages under fire.

UN ASSURED FREEDOM OF MOVEMENT

In a letter to the Secretary-General, President Makarios of Cyprus said last week that, irrespective of the legal views he had expressed in an earlier communication, he wished to give assurances that the United Nations Force in Cyprus would enjoy full freedom of movement throughout the territory of the Republic. The only exception, he said, would be certain localities connected with the defence of the state, access to which may be arranged after consultation between the Government and the U.N. Commander, General Thimayya.

In the communication of July 28th, Archbishop Maka- rios had set forth his interpretation of term 'freedom of movement' as it applies to the U.N. Force. That letter was in reply to an appeal by U'Than, who had asked that curbs on the freedom of movement guaranteed to the U.N. Force be removed.

RESOLUTION FOR A CYPRUS CEASE-FIRE

Following is the text of the resolution adopted by the United Nations Security Council on 9 August 1964, by a vote of nine in favour, none against and two abstentions (USSR and Czechoslovakia):

"The Security Council,

"Concerned at the serious deterioration of the situation in Cyprus;

Resolving the resolutions of the Security Council on Cyprus, dated 4 March, 13 March, and 20 June 1964;

Anticipating the submission of the Secretary-General's report on the situation,

1. Reaffirms the appeal of the President of the Council just addressed to the Governments of Turkey and Cyprus, and follows: 'The Security Council has authorized me to make an urgent appeal to the Government of Turkey to cease instantly the bombardment and the use of military force of any kind against Cyprus, and to the Government of Cyprus to order the armed forces under its control not to cease firing immediately.'

2. Calls for an immediate cease-fire by all concerned;

3. Calls upon all concerned to cooperate fully with the United Nations Commander in the restoration of peace and security; and

4. Calls on all States to refrain from any action that might exacerbate the situation or contribute to the broadening of hostilities.'

"This was in old times, now only the Consolidation of the Savings Bank."
Canada lies between the Atlantic Ocean, the Pacific Ocean, and the Arctic Ocean. It borders the United States to the south. Canada is the second largest country in the world, after Russia. It is known for its vast wilderness, diverse wildlife, and beautiful landscapes.

Geography and Climate

Canada is geographically diverse, with a variety of climates and environments. The country is bordered by the Atlantic Ocean to the east, the Pacific Ocean to the west, and the Arctic Ocean to the north. The vast interior of Canada includes the Great Plains, the Prairies, and the Canadian Shield, a large area of ancient rock formations.

The climate in Canada varies greatly depending on location. In the north, the climate is subarctic, with long cold winters and short, mild summers. In the southern regions, the climate is more moderate, with warmer temperatures and longer growing seasons. The country's diverse climate supports a wide range of flora and fauna, including many species of birds, mammals, and reptiles.

Economy

Canada is a major player in the global economy, with a diverse range of industries and a strong focus on technology, resource extraction, and manufacturing. The country is known for its high quality of life, strong healthcare system, and education. The official language is English, and French is also widely spoken.

Government

Canada is a federal parliamentary democracy, with a monarch as the executive head of state. The country is divided into ten provinces and three territories, each with its own government. The federal government is responsible for national defense, foreign affairs, and other matters of a national scope.

History

Canada has a rich history, dating back thousands of years. The country was inhabited by various Indigenous cultures before the arrival of European settlers in the 16th century. The first Europeans to arrive were the French, followed by the English and other nations. Today, Canada is known for its multiculturalism and commitment to human rights.

Tourism

Canada attracts millions of tourists each year, drawn by its natural beauty, cultural attractions, and friendly people. Popular destinations include the Rocky Mountains, the Niagara Falls, and the Canadian Rockies. The country also offers a wide range of sporting activities, such as skiing, hockey, and ice fishing.

Interesting Facts

- Canada is home to the world's largest lake, Lake Superior, which covers an area of 82,414 square miles.
- The country is known for its iconic maple leaf symbol.
- The national sports of Canada are ice hockey and curling.
- The national animal of Canada is the beaver.
- Canada is the only country in the world where it is legal to own a wild animal as a pet.

THE UNITED NATIONS SECRETARIAT

The Secretariat is one of the six principal organs of the United Nations. The other five are the General Assembly, the Security Council, the Economic and Social Council, and the International Court of Justice.

The Secretariat is headed by a Secretary-General who is appointed by the General Assembly on the recommendation of the Security Council. In the Assembly, a simple majority of the members present and voting is sufficient. In the Security Council, at least seven members, including all the permanent members, vote. In 1948, the United Kingdom and the United States—must agree on the nominee.

Trygve Lie, of Norway, the first Secretary-General, was appointed for a period of five years. In 1950, when he was unable to agree on a replacement, he resigned. By this time, the Secretariat was unable to agree on a replacement and the Assembly appointed the Secretary-General for a further five years.

Mr. Hammarskjold was the first Secretary-General to be appointed by the General Assembly for a term of five years. On September 18, 1961, Mr. Hammarskjold died in an airplane accident. In November 1961, U Thant of Burma was appointed Acting Secretary-General and in November 1962, Security Council unanimously recommended him for the appointment of Secretary-General for a further five-year term.

TULL - THE SWEDISH DOG OF DUTY

This is Tull, an Albino guard dog aged 3. He is one of some ten dogs belonging to the Swedish Battalion UNFICYP. Tull is serving his youth in the United Nations Force and there is no doubt that he is getting very wise.

Before coming to Cyprus, Tull was a special teacher in Swedish schools. He was last year at a Swedish school just before the School Term ended. He then started his work with the Swedish military forces.

There have been a good number of dogs in the UNFICYP, and they are all doing a good job in the UNFICYP. Unfortunately Tull is the only one left in the UNFICYP, and he is the only one left in the UNFICYP. He is doing a good job in the UNFICYP and he is doing a good job in the UNFICYP. He is doing a good job in the UNFICYP and he is doing a good job in the UNFICYP.

There are no new developments in Danish. The situation is the same as it was last week. However, the UNFICYP has decided to set up a new headquarters in the town of Tull. This is to be the new headquarters of the UNFICYP and Tull will be the new chief of the UNFICYP.

VOUNI PALACE

The foundation legend of Vouni identifies it with the ancient city of Aepia, and attributes it to Demophon son of Theseus, the Athenian hero. Both Aepia (ancient Greek) and Vouni (modern Greek) have the same meaning, i.e. a mountain peak. Vouni is the most prominent peak in the vicinity, having precipitous slopes on its south, east and north (seaward) sides.

Excavations by the Swedish Expedition in 1928-29 throw doubt on the identification of Vouni with Aepia, since they revealed nothing earlier in construction than the fifth century B.C. The earliest state of the palace, dating from the early fifth century, shows an oriental character, suggesting that it had a Persian rather than a Greek origin. The mystery remains of where ancient Aepia was situated if it was not the predecessor of Vouni.

The date of these earliest remains of Vouni coincides with that of the island-wide revolt against Persian rule led by King Onesilos of Salamis, in which the nearby city of Soli joined. The city of Marion - modern Polis in Chrissokoukhos, or Polis, situated on the north coast of Paphos district had at that time a pro-Persian dynasty, and it is probable that the ruler of Marion first subdued Soli and then built Vouni to overpower the inhabitants of the city.

In the early fourth century B.C. Marion fell to the Athenian forces under General Kimon and a new pro-Greek dynasty was installed. Presumably a member of this dynasty automatically superseded the ruler of Vouni. Hellenic influence is shown in several architectural modifications to the palace of this date.

After about 70 years under its new dynasty the palace was ravaged by fire. Shortly afterwards it was attacked and destroyed to its foundations by the inhabitants of Soli, who had turned their allegiance to the Persians.
