The United Nations Administration will issue a commemorative stamp for "World Health Day" on 7 April 1972. This issue refers in particular to one of the greatest challenges to medicine which still exists: the prevention and treatment of heart diseases. The stamp, printed by Setelpoimo, Finland, was designed by George Hamori, Australia, who adopted Leonardo da Vinci's "Proportions of Man" (circa 1509), the original of which is to be found in the Academy of Fine Arts in Venice. Members of UNFICYP may obtain the stamps through the Finance Section at HQ UNFICYP.

ST PATRICK’S DAY

The Royal Irish Rangers celebrated St. Patrick’s Day in the customary manner. The Pipes, Drums, and Bagpipes paraded round the camp at an unevenly hour drawn, dressed in a variety of clothes and in uniformity disorder. They were led by the able (bodle?) Colour Sergeant Wilson who had been appointed Drum Major for the event. The Officers played the Scotsmen at football and as they do every year, won easily.

Three parades were held, one at Papagos, one at Kophinos and the main one at Polumilea. The Commanding Officer’s wife, Mrs. McCordis presented Shamrocks at Kophios and Polumilea and the Quartermaster’s wife, Mrs. Rafferty did so at Papagos. After each parade a short Drumhead Service was held.

On the 18th March the Band, Pipes, Drums and Drums beat Retreat in Polumilea. No one knows where they all came from but about five hundred people turned up to watch and we hope were suitably impressed. Their next performance will be on the 15th April and again all are very welcome.

- Fr. M. Holman and the Rev. A. Williams lead the singing during the Drumhead Service held on St. Patrick’s Day.

ISSUES & RECEIPTS

The Quartermaster’s Department at Camp UNIFCYC can be a haven for a multitude of sins. However, when we have a group of men practicing the art of robbing the rich to serve the poor.

Directly under the command of the Camp Commandant, Major Ken Cain, Kings Own Border Regiment, they are responsible for arming, equipping and clothing all British members at Nicotia and providing furnishing for the Headquarters at Blue Beret Camp and Camp UNIFCYC.

On the furnishing side is Corporal Brian Lambert, Royal Army Ordnance Corps, who also finds time to play soccer. Amongst accounts and files one can find Lance Corporal Steven Whalley, ably assisted and guided by Mr. Chris Poppos the civilian clerk.

Arms and ammunition and taking the old M16 box to Fanagusta is the responsibility of a little giant by the name of Lance Corporal Lamek Gooling, Royal Army Ordnance Corps. To ensure that everyone has bedding, sports kit and laundry facilities, Private George Train, Royal Army Ordnance Corps, can be seen at his store during working hours, and by appointment at other times. Painter and decorator by trade Sapper Trevor Reewick, Royal Engineers, can be found taking care of Equipment, Clothing and the Responsible stores.

The department has two Greek Croatian labourers, Michael and Costa getting on with the job in hand along with Ormian, the old solder, a Turkish Cypriot.

No department is complete without its Chief’s and the deputy director, Regimental Quartermaster Sergeant Jim Brown, Royal Army Ordnance Corps, also finds time to be the President of the Quartermaster’s Mess Committee.

Partly occupying the hot seat is the Quartermaster, Major Joe Hall, The Duke of Wellington’s Regiment, who for his sins is also the Messing Office.

- Back Row (left to right) Costas, Lance Corporal Whalley, Sapper Ronwick, Corporal Lambert, Private Train, Michael and Lance Corporal Gooling.

FORGOTTEN FEW!!

As the 21st Infantry Group enters its final month in Cyprus we would like to pay tribute to some of the administrative personnel who helped make our task here easier and more pleasant. The Limelight usually shines favourably on the OPs and the men who staff the operational centres. There are the people who show the flag continually and who in return get the sultans', the scenery, the miles from the local people and the blessings for a job well done. However we must not forget those who clean up regularly to the officers, stores and canteens' to keep the system ticking over.

- The Quartermaster branch of the 21st Inf. Group is in the capable hands of Regimental Quartermaster Searia McAllister and Company Quartermaster Thomas Fitzgerald. R.Q.M. McAllister is from the Curragh and has 31 years service in the Army. This is his sixth tour overseas having served two tours of duty in the Congo. He has two sons in the army and one in the navy giving between the four, a total of one hundred and ten years service.

Company Quartermaster Sergeant Fitzgerald is a native of Clonmel Co. Tipperary and served his County hurling team on the field for many years. He has 20 years service in the army, Corporal Finson is a keen enthusiast of water skiing and cross country running.

- Pictured at his work, for it’s rarely we find him resting, is Corporal Norman Finson the Group Carpenter from the Engineers Section. With seven years service in the army, Corporal Finson is a keen enthusiast of water skiing and cross country running.

EMERGENCY WARD 10 ??

- The health and medical welfare of the Group is in the capable hands of Doctor Franck Rossant and his team, from left Company Sergeant O’Silivan, Corragh Camp, Corporal Keenan Hogan, Officer, Dr. Rossant, Dublin and Private Martin Logan, Athlone. Much appreciation is extended to Dr. Rossant and his team for their care and attention to us during the past six months.

- Company Sergeant Patrick Woods is responsible for the smooth and efficient running of the company Orderly Room. Company Sergeant Woods is from Cork City and is on his eight trip overseas. With 30 years service in the army he is on his fifth trip to Cyprus.

- Private James Mr. Donalache the Group Photograph is nine years in the Army and is on his fourth trip to Cyprus. A native of Galway he is a keen photographer, and spends many evenings hours hanging in the west of Ireland.

- Corporal Lambert and Private Train check the "Seeds of Heaven" for serviceability.

- Lance Corporal Whalley receives a "breath of life" from Private Train, whilst testing the squadging equipment.

- "I know it put those boots somewhere. says Sapper Trevor Reewick.
